THE PRESIDENT HAS SEEN

Dear President and Mrs. Bush,

(b)(6)

I am sorry, Austin Area Interreligious Ministries was too late in offering an invitation to you, Mrs. Bush. If you are ever able to work us into your schedule, the management of Four Seasons Hotel has offered to donate A.A.I.M. its services for an event to help raise funds for our work with youth, housing for the poor and the resettlement of refugees.

President Bush, I listened closely to what you had to say regarding stem-cell research. It expressed clearly the care and depth with which you approached this complex moral issue. There is no greater dilemma in ethics than the collision of two goods. I appreciate both the way you made the decision, expressed your decision, and, I commend your decision. Three for three is not only great for baseball players.

(b)(6)

Grace and peace,
