Biographical History: H. James (Jim) Towey, III earned a bachelor's degree from Florida State University in 1978 and proceeded to earn a Juris Doctor from Florida State University College of Law in 1981. In 1985, Mr. Towey befriended Mother Theresa of Calcutta and served as her legal counsel for 12 years. He also spent time volunteering in Mother Theresa's missions.

Inspired by Mother Theresa, Mr. Towey founded Aging with Dignity, a non-profit organization with a "mission to affirm and safeguard the human dignity of individuals as they age and to promote better care for those near the end of life.” He created Five Wishes, a popular living will, as well.

Later Mr. Towey served as legislative director and legal counsel to Republican Senator Mark Hatfield, Chairman of the United States Senate Appropriations Committee. Then Mr. Towey served in the cabinet of Florida Governor Lawton Chiles. He has earned six honorary doctorates, an award from Pope John Paul II, as well as many other honors.

James Towey served as the director of OFBCI from 2002 to 2006, where he worked to remove the barriers that discriminated against community and faith-based programs and made it difficult for them to compete for federal grants. He also worked to rally the armies of compassion.

After serving in the White House, Mr. Towey became the second president of Ave Maria University in Florida.
