Subject: Navy Yard & PM Howard

Kara,

I was given some preliminary, informal new times for PM Howard's visit. Here's what it's looking like:

9:00-9:30am Navy Yard Event
10:00-10:10am Pre-brief in Oval Ofc
10:15-11:00am Bilat Mtg in Oval Ofc
11:00-11:15am Press Availability
11:30am-12:30pm Lunch

I know you said a new SP would be helpful, but would this time outline be sufficient for you to re-work the President's schedule? Secretary Card has already given his blessing to the new scenario (but I realize you may not have that in writing).

Thanks,
Ruth

SCHEDULE PROPOSAL

SEPTEMBER 5, 2001

TO: Bradley A. Blakeman
Deputy Assistant to the President
For Appointments and Scheduling

FROM: Karl Rove
Assistant to the President and Senior Advisor

REQUEST: Tour and remarks

PURPOSE: To highlight minority achievement during reading week.

BACKGROUND: Emma E. Booker Elementary was built and opened its doors in the fall of 1989. It is named for the African-American educator who started the first school for blacks in Sarasota County.

"High Expectations For All" is their motto.

The Family Service Center, located on the west end of our campus, is the reason Emma E. is designated a Full Service School.

This school has a high minority enrollment and has shown tremendous improvement over the last 3 years.

SCHEDULE PROPOSALSEPTEMBER 5, 2001

TO: Bradley A. Blakeman
Deputy Assistant to the President
For Appointments and Scheduling

FROM: Karl Rove
Assistant to the President and Senior Advisor

REQUEST: Classroom visit and remarks

PURPOSE: To highlight the President's reading program on the first day of Reading Week and to announce the President's regional reading academies.

BACKGROUND: This proposal is for the first stop on a 3-city tour in Florida to highlight Reading Week. Justina Elementary has shown tremendous improvement using Open Court reading curriculum. Open Court is a core reading curriculum that is especially effective with younger children. The program provides direct, explicit instruction in phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, and comprehension. Open Court has a strong research base – for example, American Institute of Research found significant external supporting data supporting Open Court as a reading methodology.
