Ma'am,

There is one active duty sailor by the name of Chief Petty Officer Marcus Galloway who is stationed at Fort Meade, MD. I cannot say if it's the same one in your photo.

Hey Shayne - I just received the photos from the Memorial Day Gold Star Oval meeting. I noticed in one of my photos a family member is in military uniform. I wasn't notified of that beforehand and I need confirmation of his service ASAP (as I will have to change my letter language to reflect his service). It appears Marcus is in a Navy uniform, hopefully that will help narrow down the search field. Sorry to rush you, but these letters and photos need to get to the WW as soon as possible.

Thanks!

Dear Katie:

I was honored to meet you in the Oval Office on Memorial Day.

Your father is a hero, and he gave his life helping to make the world a more peaceful place. Notes:

- Sergeant Jessica L. Cawvey, ARNG, is a female, so letters to her family will be adjusted accordingly from the below text
- Underlined language in the last two letters is added to recognize family members who are active duty or retired military – WHMO is confirming service
- Language is very similar to the language used for the recent Ohio meetings, with some tweaks in the first paragraph (which is similar to language that was used last year for Memorial Day meetings) and some other very minor adjustments
- Like the Ohio events, adjusted language will only be used to ensure that each letter to family members will have different text
- Language for families of missing in action personnel will be sent over separately

Ma'am,

He actually retired, so using his rank would be appropriate.

Hello there! I have a military question for you. I want to clarify the info regarding Homer Galloway, did he actually retire from the Army or was he honorably discharged, etc.? Also, in your opinion would it be appropriate to address him as Sergeant First Class Homer Galloway, USA, Ret.?

Thanks!!!
