Presidency in Action

Calvin William Verity was born in Middletown, Ohio, on January 26, 1917. He studied in economics from Yale University (1939). Verity worked in advertising for Young Rubicam, managed the Hapsburg House restaurant, and went on to his grandfather's company.

He served the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant in the Pacific (1942-1946), and then re-joined Armco. He progressed from handling personnel, to director of organizational planning development (1957), to director of public relations (1961), to vice president and manager of steel (1964), to executive vice president of Armco (1965), and finally to member of Armco's board (1971).

Verity was also chairman of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce (1980-1981), chairman of Reagan's bipartisan task force on Private Sector Initiatives (1981), and co-chair of the U.S.S.R. Trade Economic Council (1979-1984).

In the latter years of the Reagan administration, he served as secretary of commerce (1987-1989).

Dear Senator Feingold:

Thank you for your letter to President Bush inviting him to host the Milwaukee Wave at the White House in Washington, DC.

We greatly appreciate your thoughtful invitation. Unfortunately, due to scheduling commitments, we are unable to accommodate your request for the President to attend your event. However, we have forwarded your letter to the Office of Presidential Correspondence for consideration of a message.

Thank you again for writing. The President sends his best wishes.

President George W. Bush
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Mr. President,

On May 21st, 2005, the Milwaukee Wave won the Major Indoor Soccer League's National Championship (MISL), by beating the Cleveland Force 10 - 9, in double overtime. This victory marked the fourth National Championship for the Wave in its 21 year franchise history, and capped its seventh straight regular season championship.

On behalf of the Milwaukee Wave organization, its players and its fans, I'm writing to request that the team be recognized by the President as part of a White House visit.

Led by Head Coach, Keith Tozer, the Wave has won three of its four national championships in the last three years. Mr. Tozer is recognized as the most successful coach in the history of MISL, with over 500 career victories.

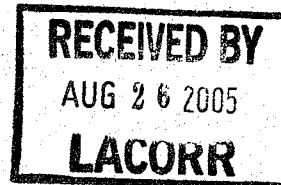

In addition to being a longstanding part of Milwaukee's professional sports teams, the Wave supports thousands of Milwaukee area children by hosting summer skills camps, led by members of the team. The Milwaukee Kickers Soccer Club, the area's largest youth soccer organization, has over 8,000 players ranging in age from 7-21.

I would appreciate any courtesies you could extend to the team. They are an important part of the city of Milwaukee and we are proud of the work they do both on and off the field.

Sincerely,

Russell D. Feingold
United States Senator
