Access: Access to Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 USC 22) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 USC 552 as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright: Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Custodial History: Official records of George W. Bush's presidency are housed at the George W. Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processing Note: Processed by staff archivists, October 2015. Last Modified: 05/19/2016.

Preferred Citation: Type of document; names of sender and recipient, or title of document; date; White House Office of Records Management Subject Code and case number; box number; Collection Title and series/subseries, George W. Bush Presidential Library.

Administrative History: The White House Office of Records Management is responsible for the filing and retrieval of records created during the incumbent presidential administration. The use of a filing methodology for records created or received by the White House dates to at least the early years of the 20th century, and has undergone changes since that time to cope with the ever-expanding volume of paperwork handled by the President and his staff.

The White House Office of Records Management, or ORM (or WHORM) manages the office files of individual White House staff members, as well as administration records that are arranged by subject code and case file ID number according to their general subject matter.

Scope and Content Note: The records consists of correspondence, press releases, fact sheets, an executive order, publications, a resolution, routing and information memoranda, talking points, and reports. Present are talking points, a press release, and a report from the Department of Homeland Security (FEMA) with reference to Hurricane Katrina. A report is also included entitled "Maine State Rehabilitation Council 2006 & 2007 Annual Report." In addition, talking points reference the Governor's Island transfer. Also included are informational memoranda on topics such as the legislative history of the Education Savings Accounts, the Governor's Island National Monument, and the President's Task Force on Puerto Rico's Status. Present is Executive Order (E.O.) 13299: Interagency Group on Insular Areas, which was signed by President George W. Bush on May 8, 2003. Included along with this document are memoranda and letters from agency officials recommending the President sign the E.O. The resolution included expresses support to include, redesign, and issue a quarter emblematic of Puerto Rico and the other territories of the United States. Correspondence to President George W. Bush from congressional leaders, governors, and the general public are present regarding various topics including: budget priorities, NAFTA provisions, thank you letters to hosts of the G8 Summit in Georgia, the Salt Lake City Olympic Games, Hurricane Katrina, and resignation letters of incoming administration officials (such as Governor Christine Todd Whitman). No material released contains personal privacy information.

System of Arrangement: Material is arranged by alphanumeric subcode and thereunder by case file number.
