Biographical History

Edward (Ed) Gillespie was born in Mount Holly, New Jersey and raised in nearby Browns Mills. He attended Pemberton Township High School in New Jersey and Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C. While in college, Gillespie worked as a parking lot attendant on Capitol Hill, which eventually led to an internship in a congressional office. He continued to gain more prestigious positions on congressional staffs and from 1985 to 1996 he served as a top aide to former House Majority Leader Dick Armey.

In 1996, Gillespie served as Director of Communications and Congressional Affairs for the Republican National Committee. In 2000, he founded the lobbyist group Quinn Gillespie & Associates (now known as QGA Public Affairs) with Jack Quinn. He also worked on the Bush-Cheney campaign during this time. Also in 2001, he assisted with managing the Republican National Convention in Philadelphia. He served as communications director for George W. Bush's first inauguration on January 20, 2001. In 2002, he was the general strategist for Elizabeth Dole's Senate campaign in North Carolina. He returned to the Republican National Committee in July 2003 for the 2004 election cycle, this time as its Chairman.

In the summer of 2005, Gillespie served as a White House advisor during the Senate confirmation processes for John Roberts' and Samuel Alito's nominations to the Supreme Court. From June 26, 2007 to January 20, 2009, he served as Counselor to the President under George W. Bush. After Bush's term ended, he became chairman of Governor Bob McDonnell's successful gubernatorial campaign in Virginia. In 2012, he chaired Mitt Romney's presidential campaign. Gillespie lost his November 2014 bid for election to the Senate in Virginia.

Gillespie is married to wife, Cathy, and has three children.

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2014-0301-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2014-0301-F contains materials related to records created by, as well as records about, Edward (Ed) Gillespie from June 1, 2007 and January 20, 2009, the period he was serving as Counselor to the President.

The majority of responsive materials come from Gillespie's staff member office files from his time in Counselor's Office. The materials were originally in manila envelopes so descriptive folder titles have been assigned to each grouping of documents. The resulting folders are arranged as a Confidential File and are arranged alphabetically. Some folders pre-date Gillespie's time in the White House, but seem to have been used as reference material. The remaining folders are those that relate to Gillespie, but were not created by him.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2014-0301-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

FOIA request 2014-0301-F contains records created by, as well as records about, Edward (Ed) Gillespie from June 1, 2007 and January 20, 2009, the period he was serving as Counselor to the President.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – Staff Member Office Files

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.

Staff Member Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

The following is a list of documents and folders processed in response to FOIA 2014-0301-F:
