This FOIA primarily contains correspondence, resumes, informational memoranda, articles, printed email, voting results, letter drafts, webpages, newspaper clippings, briefings, transcripts, fax cover pages, and business cards. Correspondence consists of routine administrative correspondence between Karl Rove and Susan B. Ralston discussing award dinners or attending events, as well as routine correspondence written to Karl Rove from the general public. Materials also include a memorandum on emergency contraception, voting results of Democratic Senators to increase the debt limit, and a memorandum on Individuals Direct Control of Assets.
