Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2014-0473-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2014-0473-F contains materials related to the personnel file of Elise Stefanik.

This FOIA primarily contains various personnel forms, including pre-employment information forms, a personnel action approval form, a separation action form, a change in employee status form, and 2008/2009 transition check-out. In addition, the resume and resignation letter of Elise Stefanik are present.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2014-0473-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – Staff Member Office Files.

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.

Staff Member Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.
