Staff Archivists, 2017. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released. Last Modified: 06/08/2017

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2017-0063-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2017-0063-F requested materials related to budget documents for parties attended by White House staff in November and December 2002.

This FOIA primarily contains emails regarding the development of film from a camera used at the Office of Homeland Security holiday party.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2017-0063-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – George W. Bush Presidential Electronic Records.

The Executive Office of the President (EOP) instance of the Electronic Records Archive (ERA) contains electronic records created or received by President George W. Bush. These records are stored in Search and Access Sets (SAS) that represent their originating computer program, such as Exchange Email or the Worker and Visitor Entry System (WAVES). In addition to records captured from the White House's electronic systems, EOP-ERA also contains records from the home and shared drives used by White House staff.

The following is a manifest of electronic records processed in response to FOIA 2017-0063-F:

ERA Sensitive

The records included here are George W. Bush presidential records reproduced from holdings of the National Archives and Records Administration.
