BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

TOM LUCE

There are four passions that define the life of Tom Luce: family, education, public service, and the State of Texas. And he continues to be a voice of vision – for our children, for our schools, and for the future of the Lone Star State.

With a commitment to ensuring that our schools reach their highest potential for excellence, Tom has invested time, talent, and resources in our educational system at all levels. As Chief of Staff for the Texas Select Committee of Public Schools and as Governor Bush's delegate to the Education Commission of the States, Tom Luce has led the way for education reform. Tom's latest endeavor on behalf of our school children is Just for the Kids, a nonprofit corporation which he founded to maximize every child's public education opportunities in Texas.

Tom also has a passion for learning at the higher education level. He has served on the Board of Trustees at Southern Methodist University, as a Fellow at the Institute of Politics at the Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University, and as the Centennial Student Lecturer at the University of Texas at Austin, and currently serves as Chairman of the LBJ School of Public Affairs. He has taught courses at the LBJ School and the University of Texas at Dallas.

In addition to his academic passion, Tom has a long history of public service in various other arenas. Tom has been appointed five (5) times by Governors of Texas to major posts. He has also served on the Board of Directors of numerous civic and charitable organizations and continues his commitment to community advancement today as the Chairman of the Dallas 2012 Olympic Bid Committee.

An attorney by trade, Tom Luce is a valuable contributor to our community as a lawyer, a public servant, an advocate for education – and as a family man. Tom and Pam, his wife of 41 years, have 3 children and 7 lively grandsons.

Mr. Clay Johnson
The White House
Washington, DC

Dear Clay:

I am not seeking a cabinet post. I am not seeking an assignment in London or Paris. See, I am easy!

Instead, my dream assignment would be an appointment to The Library of Congress Trust Fund Board.

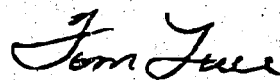

My reason is simple. I love books and I love American History.

To me, The Library of Congress is a treasure that needs to be supported and nurtured. I have the time and interest to do that.

It is my understanding that you have previously received electronically from Carolyn Bacon a copy of my biography but if you need any additional information regarding my qualifications, I would be most happy to supply any information you need.

Thank you for your consideration of this request.

Yours very truly,

Tom Luce
