THE CHAIRMAN

August 11, 2004

The Honorable George W. Bush
President of the United States
1600 Pennsylvania Avenue, NW
Washington, DC 20500

Dear Mr. President:

I am enclosing the Securities and Exchange Commission's Government Performance and Results Act Strategic Plan for 2004-2009. We have prepared this information pursuant to the requirements of the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993. The Commission approved the plan on July 9, 2004.

The complete plan is available on the SEC's website at www.sec.gov/strategicplan.

This plan reflects a strong focus on risk assessment and was developed by a team of representatives from all of the SEC's major divisions and offices. The team evaluated the condition of domestic and international securities markets, recent changes in the marketplace, legislative developments, and issues affecting investors and the general public. The team also assessed organizational considerations such as human capital, work process, diversity, financial resources, and technology during the planning process.

A strong SEC is essential to addressing problems facing the securities industry and setting a course toward restoring investor confidence. To that end, this plan demonstrates the SEC's commitment to fulfill its investor protection mission and to utilize taxpayer resources efficiently and effectively.

If you or your staff have any comments or questions, please feel free to contact Jim McConnell, Executive Director, at 942-4300.

Yours truly,

William H. Donaldson
Chairman
