Access

Collection is open to all researchers. Access to George W. Bush Presidential Records is governed by the Presidential Records Act (PRA) (44 USC 2201) and the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) (5 USC 552, as amended) and therefore records may be restricted in whole or in part in accordance with legal exemptions.

Copyright

Documents in this collection that were prepared by officials of the United States government as part of their official duties are in the public domain. Researchers are advised to consult the copyright law of the United States (Title 17, USC) which governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Provenance

Official records of George W. Bush's presidency are housed at the George W. Bush Presidential Library and administered by the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) under the provisions of the Presidential Records Act (PRA).

Processing by

Staff Archivists, 2016. Previously restricted materials are added as they are released. Last Modified: 09/18/2020

Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2015-0037-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2015-0037-F contains materials related to James Dobson.

This FOIA primarily contains correspondence, briefings, schedules, seating charts, speech drafts, news articles, publications, printed emails, scheduling requests, routing memoranda, routine forms, presidential message and video requests, invitations to administration officials, policy and job approval polling questions and results, and reports regarding Bush administration hiring and staffing. Also included are White House Office of Public Liaison memoranda outlining office activities and outreach efforts. There are reports containing updates from outside organizations on their efforts to promote Bush administration policy and appointments. Numerous draft copies of speeches for video-taped messages from President Bush for Focus on the Family, the Daughters of the American Revolution, and the National Association of Blacks in Criminal Justice are represented. The large quantity of correspondence consists of letters from the public, Congress, and public and private organizations regarding requests for meetings and views on policy topics. There are also draft and final copies of letters sent from President George W. Bush to meeting participants, letters from Karl Rove thanking associates for their work while he served in the White House, and birthday messages and thank you letters sent from President Bush to James Dobson. The bulk of the material processed for this request was sent to or from Karl Rove.

Electronic records consist of emails to/from James Dobson and members of the White House, especially Tim Goeglein. Emails from Tim Goeglein include materials distributed to groups and organizations such as proclamations, press releases, fact sheets, Statements of Administration Policy, articles, speeches, and transcripts regarding stem cell research, abortion, human cloning, as well as other administration initiatives. There are also invitations and scheduling materials for phone calls and meetings with James Dobson. Lastly, there are messages from James Dobson giving thanks for matters such as the State of the Union address, National Day of Prayer events, nominations and appointments, as well as the materials distributed by Tim Goeglein.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2015-0037-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files, Staff Member Office Files, and George W. Bush Presidential Electronic Records.

Staff Member Office Files are maintained at the folder level by staff members within their individual offices and document all levels of administration activity.

Staff Member Office Files are processed at the folder level, that is, individual documents are not selected and removed from a folder for processing. While this method maintains folder integrity, it frequently results in the incidental processing of documents that are not wholly responsive to the subject area.

WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at www.georgewbushlibrary.smu.edu

The Executive Office of the President (EOP) instance of the Electronic Records Archive (ERA) contains electronic records created or received by President George W. Bush. These records are stored in Search and Access Sets (SAS) that represent their originating computer program, such as Exchange Email or the Worker and Visitor Entry System (WAVES). In addition to records captured from the White House's electronic systems, EOP-ERA also contains records from the home and shared drives used by White House staff.
