Video Taping: Remarks to Medical Reserve Corps Conference
Wednesday, April 13, 2005
Draft #4

I am honored to send greetings to all the members of the Medical Reserve Corps, and I appreciate the chance to speak to you today.

Three years ago, I created the USA Freedom Corps to build on the countless acts of kindness we saw after the attacks of September 11th, 2001. I asked every American to commit two years, or 4,000 hours over a lifetime, to serving neighbors in need.

This call to service produced an immediate and enthusiastic response – and one of the finest examples is the Medical Reserve Corps. Since its creation in 2002 as part of the Citizen Corps, your organization has grown to more than forty thousand volunteer members. You now have units in over 250 communities across America. You are meeting the needs of these communities by providing immunizations and other public health services. And you are making our Nation safer, by helping local emergency units better prepare for whatever might come our way – be it a natural or man-made disaster.

America is blessed to have the finest health care professionals in the world, and I'm grateful for your willingness to share your time, energy, and talents. I want to thank all the members of the Medical Reserve Corps for being willing to love a neighbor just as you would like to be loved yourself. Your efforts are proof that the true strength of America lies not in our wealth or power, but in the compassionate hearts and souls of our citizens.

May God bless your work, and may He continue to bless America.
