National Family Caregivers Month, 2003 by the President of the United States of America a Proclamation

By the President of the United States of America
A Proclamation

Millions of Americans make extraordinary efforts every day to care for loved ones who are elderly, chronically ill, or disabled. These caregivers make many sacrifices to improve the lives of their loved ones. Through their love, dedication, and courage, these compassionate children, parents, spouses, grandparents, and extended family members strengthen and preserve the importance of family and reflect the true character of our Nation.

My Administration is supporting family caregivers in their efforts to provide comfort and support to their loved ones. The National Family Caregiver Support Program, managed by the Administration on Aging of the Department of Health and Human Services, gives family caregivers counseling, information, respite care, and supplemental services.

As we mark National Family Caregivers Month, we express our gratitude to family caregivers, and celebrate the great blessings they bring to their families and to our Nation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE W. BUSH, President of the United States of America, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and laws of the United States, do hereby proclaim November 2003 as National Family Caregivers Month. I encourage all Americans to honor and support family members, friends, and neighbors who assume important caregiving responsibilities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this thirty-first day of October, in the year of our Lord two thousand three, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and twenty-eighth.

GEORGE W. BUSH

Why the Church Opposes Assisted Suicide

Wilton D. Gregory, S.L.D.

Presents the Church's teaching an important moral issue. "In the midst of a culture that often denies the value of human life, I want to present the teaching of the Church in regard to the issue of physician-assisted suicide," writes Bishop Gregory. "Our opposition to physician-assisted suicide is not to hinder freedom but to protect the right to die with human and Christian dignity."

November 5, 2003

The Honorable George W. Bush
The White House
Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear President Bush,

On behalf of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, and of millions of Catholics nationwide, I write to express our deep gratitude to you for signing into law a ban on one of the gravest human rights violations in recent times—partial-birth abortion.

Partial-birth abortion is an inhumane and unjust death sentence on human children. It is also an abhorrent procedure that the American people firmly and overwhelmingly reject.

For 30 years, since the Supreme Court legalized abortion in its Roe v. Wade decision, unborn children could legally be killed at any time during a pregnancy, for any reason and by any method. Your signing of the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act marks the first time since that decision that our nation has acted to stop any abortion procedure. This is surely an historic step.

Pope John Paul II has called on our country to be true to its own highest ideals, to reject abortion and instead dedicate itself to building a Culture of Life. Enactment of the Partial-Birth Abortion Ban Act is an important step towards this goal.

Mr. President, please know that you have our deep appreciation, as well as our continued prayers and support in moving toward the shared goal of building a culture that protects, nurtures and sustains human life. Surely God, who creates and blesses all human life, will hear our prayers, and sustain and guide us in this noble work.

With prayerful best wishes for you and your family, I am

Sincerely yours in the Lord,

Most Reverend Wilton D. Gregory
Bishop of Belleville
President
