Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2014-0348-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2014-0348-F contains records created by or sent to Elaine Chao, Secretary of Labor, related to securities regulation, the SEC, and market regulation.

This FOIA primarily contains correspondence, clippings, press releases, internet printouts, invitations, schedule proposals, block schedules, printed email, and routing memoranda. These materials consist of correspondence from the general public to President George W. Bush, Karl Rove, and others within the administration. This includes telegrams related to support and non-support of administration policies on war; letters from congresspersons to President George W. Bush regarding judicial nominations, as well as to Karl Rove regarding legislation (the naming of a Post Office) and presenting a gift to President George W. Bush; and a printed email to Karl Rove from Elaine Chao forwarding a Wall Street Journal article. Also included are schedule proposals for events regarding Social Security, as well as a tour of a Virginia Biodiesel Refinery, and meeting with families of fallen soldiers.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2014-0348-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files.

WHORM Subject Files are processed at the document level.

The WHORM Subject File compiled by the White House Office of Records Management is comprised of a series of documents assigned a letter/number combination and filed in a subject category. A complete listing of the subject categories including a detailed description of each category is available in our research room and on our website at www.georgewbushlibrary.smu.edu
