Scope and Content

The materials in FOIA 2014-0325-F are a selective, not necessarily all inclusive, body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult the archivist about related materials.

FOIA 2014-0325-F requested materials related to emails to or from members of the George W. Bush administration between March 20, 2005, and January 20, 2009, concerning the Denver Three, including the three individuals involved, Leslie Weise, Alex Young, and Karen Bauer.

This FOIA primarily contains news articles and news compilations regarding the Denver Three, requests from the media for comment and those comments, routine memoranda, talking points, lists of agency FOIA requests, and court filings and documents. Included are factual updates concerning the media and status of litigation regarding the Denver Three, as well as court filings and documents relating to the lawsuit filed by Leslie Weise and Alex Young, Weise v. Casper (and further cases). Additionally, this request contains factual memoranda to Karl Rove regarding meetings with Denver news media and talking points for those meetings. Many documents are sent between Press Office and Media Affairs staff members.

System of Arrangement

The materials in FOIA 2014-0325-F are a systematic body of documents responsive to the topic of the FOIA. Researchers should consult an archivist about related materials.

Documents responsive to this FOIA were found in these collection areas – George W. Bush Presidential Electronic Records.

The Executive Office of the President (EOP) instance of the Electronic Records Archive (ERA) contains electronic records created or received by President George W. Bush. These records are stored in Search and Access Sets (SAS) that represent their originating computer program, such as Exchange Email or the Worker and Visitor Entry System (WAVES). In addition to records captured from the White House's electronic systems, EOP-ERA also contains records from the home and shared drives used by White House staff.
