Dear Liz:

I enjoyed hosting you and the Olympic Torch Relay event at the White House. Thank you for your help in making the event such a success. Your courage and steadfast spirit in the wake of September 11th are an inspiration to us all.

I was especially glad that Laura and the girls had a chance to meet you. We will keep your family in our thoughts and prayers.

Sincerely,

George W. Bush

Dear Ms. Hornell:

The attached letter was written by the President and forwarded by him on the date written. Unfortunately, it was included in an express package that was held here in Washington. We were unaware until recently it was being held. However, I am forwarding it at this time because I know you would want to receive it as originally written. I am very sorry for the delay in your receiving it. Sincerely,
Harriet Miers
